Pupil Premium funding is used at Hursthead Infant School to directly benefit the individual pupils depending on their needs – emotional, social or academic. Our objective is to directly use the funding to support the individual achieve their potential. Pupil Premium funding has, in the past, and is currently being used in the following ways:

- To give extra individualised direct teaching, by a Teacher, Higher Level Teaching Assistant or Teaching Assistant individually or within small groups on the basic skills of literacy and Numeracy (Individual or small group intervention – sentence writing, phonics, spelling, maths)
- To give extra individualised direct teaching, individually or within a small group, by a Teacher, Higher Level Teaching Assistant or Teaching Assistant, to enhance and challenge pupils understanding and knowledge within Literacy and Numeracy extending the pupil’s deeper learning and skills.
- To give extra directed teaching, by a Teacher, Higher Level Teaching Assistant or Teaching Assistant to develop fine and/or gross motor skills and language/communication acquisition. (Intervention Groups – Motor Skills United, extra handwriting sessions, Time to Talk, social stories, story boards)
- To directly teach pupils with emotional and social needs coping strategies challenging them to be able to access the learning and social opportunities offered by school.
- To support parents through sessions with a qualified Parenting coach on days and at times convenient for the parents. This intervention supports the whole family.
- To deploy a Learning Support Assistant, under the direction of the SENCO and Headteacher, to give pastoral and social support for individual pupils at ‘trigger’ points in the school day. This intervention has ensured positive outcomes for pupils at times when they have needed greater support.

- To deploy a Learning Support Assistant under the direction of the class teacher and Headteacher to give pupils’ emotional and social support during classroom learning and undertake intervention work to give pupils’ techniques to develop self-regulating strategies. This is essential for pupils who find the busy classroom a stressful place to be.
- To use a Learning Support Assistant and Teaching Assistants, under the direction of the Class Teacher and Headteacher, to deliver SEAL work with pupils – individually or within small groups as appropriate. These sessions give pupils opportunities to reflect, discuss and understand their feelings and emotions promoting the skills of co-operation and listening and encouraging empathy and consideration of others feelings and perspectives.
- To use the “Happy to be Me” resources and activities with pupils in small groups, undertaken by a fully trained teacher (who will disseminate her knowledge to HLTA, TA and LSA as appropriate and oversee their work) with a focus purely on promoting pupil’s self-esteem and confidence. These activities are aimed at developing resilience and self-belief, vital skills for vulnerable pupils.
- To give pupils an enhanced opportunity to explore, develop and extend their interests through extra-curricular clubs, sessions and experiences.
- To ensure pupils are fully included in the breadth and “hands on” experiences that enhance the school’s curriculum, such as educational visits and visitors.
